Berlin Newspapers Join in Demanding That Russians of All Political Parties be Forced to Desist from Agitation—High Percentage of Russians Have No Papers

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, March 29.—Berlin newspapers today joined hands in demanding that in the light of last night's attempt upon the life of Paul M. Milukoff, former minister of foreign affairs in the Russian provisional government Russians of all political parties be forced to desist from agitation. They declared Russian monarchists must be checked as well as the Bolsheviks.

The murderers of Vladimir Naboukoff, who sacrificed his life to save Professor Milukoff, were first taken into custody by the officials in charge of criminal cases but today they were transferred to the political section.

The German press says Germany is willing to have Russians conduct theaters and engage in legitimate social, artistic and educational activities but they must put a ban on politics.

Veterans

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 29.—The last battalion of soldier dead to be brought home from the fields of France—1060 in all—were saluted by the guns of Forts Hamilton and Wadsworth, when the army transport Cambrai passed thru the Narrows this afternoon. Flugs escorting craft flew at half mast and were dipped the entire length of their staffs in salute to the fallen warriors.

Forty-five thousand of those who made the supreme sacrifice overseas in the service of the United States have now been brought back to their homeland and only about 100 more bodies await transportation from England and France. All of the others will continue to rest in foreign soil.

Commemorative services for those who died in uniform will be conducted Sunday in Brooklyn.

General Pershing is to lead a parade organized by war veterans. Thirty four officers and 941 men released from service in the Rhineland were passengers aboard the Cambrai. Fifty seven wives of enlisted men, French, Belgian, Swiss and German girls came with their husbands. The German wives brought 14 babies.

RAILROADS AND EMPLOYEES FAIL TO GET TOGETHER

Railroad Labor Board Sets Hearing for Other Unions

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 29.—Failure of the regional negotiations between railroad managements and the engineers' and firemen's brotherhoods in an effort to settle disputes over wages and working conditions was disclosed today when the railroad labor board set a hearing for disputes involving engineers and firemen's rules on all railroads to follow immediately the present wage hearing, which is expected to end by April 15.

This announcement was said by railroad men to lend confirmation to a report of a split between engineers and firemen and the conductors' and trainmen's brotherhoods. Conferences between the two latter organizations and the railroads are still in progress.

Attempts to arrive at a new wage agreement and to settle controversies over working rules were made in three regional conferences which began last month. Desiring to avoid carrying their troubles to the labor board, the big four brotherhoods which have for years acted with a solid front, requested Secretary Hoover to call the railroad and brotherhood heads to attempt a settlement.

Plans resulted for regional conferences.

Meanwhile the labor board held in abeyance the train service men's rules disputes before the board for settlement.

The four brotherhoods were likewise excluded from the present wage pairing because of the board's promise at the time of threatened strike last fall to settle all rule controversies before acting on further wage cuts proposed by the carriers. The first intimation of a division within the brotherhood came early in the negotiations when W. S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and W. S. Carter, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, went into conference alone with a committee of eastern railroad officials.

L. E. Sheppard, president of the Order of Railway Conductors, and W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen were left to hold separate conferences with the roads.

Fall of Agreement.
Successful meetings failed of any agreement, the roads clamoring for abolition of time and one-half pay after eight hours' work in yard and freight service and the engineers and firemen's leaders demanding its retention. It was reported that the roads offered to compromise on an agreement "not" to seek further wage reductions for the engineers and firemen at present if they would agree to give up the overtime rule.

The brotherhoods declined. The regional conference of the engineers and firemen having failed the board received notices signed jointly by the railroad and union committee heads that it was impossible to reach an agreement and asking that the rules disputes be taken up.

Forty seven railroad men were involved in the western group, 38 in the east and 25 in the south-east. Charges of favoritism on the part of the roads toward the big four cropped out several times during the present wage hearing. Leaders of the small labor groups feared that the railroads wished to reduce their labor bill at the expense of the lower classes of workers, while retaining present rates of pay for the train service men.

The brotherhoods have no national agreement but work under separate agreements with the industrial railroads.

ADVOCATES FOR LARGE NAVY ARE READY TO FIGHT

Will Try to Prevent Reduction of Personnel to 65,000

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 29.—Advocates of a large navy started a move in the house today to prevent the proposed reduction in the navy's enlisted personnel for next year to 65,000.

Announcement was made by Representative McArthur of Oregon, Republican member of the naval affairs committee that when the bill comes up from the appropriations committee he would offer an amendment to place the minimum strength at 86,000. It was said that Representative Rogers of Massachusetts, ranking Republican on the foreign affairs committee, would propose 96,000 as the minimum.

The bill making provision for only 65,000 men, will be reported next week by Chairman Kelly of the sub-committee on appropriations. In taking final action the house will vote first on the Rogers amendment.

In event of its defeat, which is generally conceded by house leaders, the test will come on the McArthur amendment. Should that fail, the committee recommendation will stand for a vote.

"The house committee on naval affairs," said Mr. McArthur, "has reported legislation authorizing an enlisted strength of 80,000 men and 6,000 apprentice seamen, and although I am not speaking officially for the committee, I feel that a large majority of its members are opposed to reducing our enlisted personnel to 65,000 when it is well understood that Japan will have 58,000 and Great Britain 104,000 during the coming fiscal year."

"The arms conference agreed to a five-five-three basis of naval armament, but if the proponents of the four-four-two basis win, the personnel ratio will be approximately five-three-three. I do not believe the American people want their navy to drop to third place in personnel, or in any other respect."

HIGH OFFICERS IN OPPOSITION TO CUT IN ARMY PERSONNEL

Say Proposed Cuts Will Work Serious Injury to Country

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 29.—Stating the army's case in opposition to further reductions in enlisted men and command strength before Washington newspaper men gathered at the National Press Club tonight, General Pershing, chief of the staff and Major General Harbord, deputy chief of staff, jointly declared their belief that the bill passed today by the house limiting the army to 115,000 men and 11,000 officers would work serious injury to the nation's military policy and undermine the best system for preparedness the nation ever had.

"Further reductions would be disastrous," General Pershing declared, adding that such reductions would introduce an unwarranted element of danger in our plan of national defense.

General Harbord asserted the country "travelled in a vicious circle of unpreparedness and post war economy. Both officers asserted that 150,000 and 12,000 officers were essential to the nation's needs at this time.

"The size of the peace garrisons recommended for Hawaii and the Panama Canal Zone," General Pershing added, is the minimum with which their missions can be performed. Any material decrease in their size will make them ineffective and open the door to attack. The importance of these possessions in the plan of national defense; the expense of maintaining them; the fact that they must be defended by the regular army; and the difficulty of supplying adequate reinforcements in an emergency; all demand that the defending force be reasonably effective and that the personnel be definitely authorized from what ever strength congress authorizes for the regular army."

Once started the strike is expected to continue automatically with district unit officials in the coal fields conferring by wire with the international officers here. Any unexpected developments may result in a call for a meeting of the union's general policy committee and its issuance of circulars informing the miners of the progress of the strike.

NOTORIOUS BANK ROBBER BELIEVED TO BE IN CUSTODY

Identified by Postal Inspectors as Dress Up Johnny Gardner

(By The Associated Press)
WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., March 29.—A gun fight between seven men and a sheriff's posse here today resulted in the arrest of seven men who are held for identification in connection with the arrest of "Dress Up Johnny" Gardner, whom authorities assert is the leader of a gang which has terrorized a number of Southern Illinois towns during the past year by bank robberies.

The men arrested gave the names of James McAdams, Joseph E. Brady, Harry Mayfield, John Morgan, Robert Wayne, John Enright and Edward Mack.

The gun fight developed when the posse, headed by deputy sheriff Dorris approached a shack in the wooded section of the country four miles west of Herrin. Shots were exchanged. The officers succeeded in closing in on their attackers without any injuries resulting. A quantity of liquor, several revolvers and pistols and some tools, which officers say are used in "burglar kits" were also taken.

"Dressed Up Johnny" Gardner, a native of Zanesville, Ohio, and who is wanted in towns throughout the country to answer various charges was identified today by postal inspectors in connection with several robberies of postoffices in Illinois.

Gardner's identification was accomplished thru the aid of Bertillon measurements and tattoo marks—the initials J. H. G., on one arm and a likeness of a woman on the other.

County officers tonight said while Gardner was enroute to jail he offered them $4,000 for his liberty, and that this offer led them to believe that they had the right man.

Rewards totalling $6,000 are reported here to have been offered for the capture of Gardner.

F. W. Reuter of East St. Louis, a postal inspector today identified Gardner as the man wanted in connection with the robbery of the postoffice at Hallidayboro, Illinois, a year ago.

Gardner taken to Benton.

BENTON, Ill., March 29.—A man arrested yesterday at Herrin and brought here for safe keeping was identified today as John H. Gardner, known as "Dressed Up" Johnny, a former convict for whom a nation wide search has been conducted since 1915.

Gardner was the alleged leader of a gang of safe blowers which looted more than 25 banks and postoffices in Illinois.

The prisoner would not admit the identity, but the identification was made by the initials J. H. G. tattooed on his right arm and a woman's head tattooed on his left arm. These marks correspond with Bertillon descriptions of Gardner, it was said.

The man was arrested on suspicion and when asked if he were Gardner replied:

"Find out who I am."

Gardner was convicted in 1910 in connection with a bank robbery at Chatsworth, Illinois, and served five years of an indeterminate sentence when paroled. He later was said to have been implicated in bank and postoffice robberies in Southern Illinois and in March 1920, was caught escaping from the Truitt-Matthews Bank at Chillicothe, Illinois, the safe of which had been blown. He was released under $5,000 bond which he jumped and since then he has been sought.

INDUSTRY CAN PAY LIVING WAGE SAYS EMPLOYES PRESIDENT

B. M. Jewell Sums Up His Argument Before the Railroad Labor Board for Increase of Wages to the Shop Craft Workers—Says
That Big Interests are Holding on the Lid

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 29.—Industry can pay a living wage if it wants to, B. M. Jewell, president, railway employees department, American Federation of Labor declared today in summing up his argument for an increase in wages for a half million shop craft workers before the railway labor board.

The speaker contended that an analysis of the possibility of physical production undertaken by competent economists proved that the physical resources, the plant, the labor power and the scientific knowledge of the United States are such that a living wage is possible for all who work if industry is directed to that end.

"That industry does not intend to pay this living wage is clear from the way in which it squeezed the workers and the farmers during the periods of inflation and deflation," he asserted.

Mr. Jewell charged that interests which he said were back of the railroad's demand for a fresh pay cut are planning new rades on the income of all wage earners and farmers when they have emerged from the present depression.

"They are holding the lid on until they get low wages in all industries including low returns to farmers so that when increased production is again initiated they can absorb the entire increase," he said. "The discrepancy between prices and wages which was manifest during the recent inflation period will be repeated."

"This policy is pursued because interest, rents and dividends are deemed more important than the payment to wage earners of the means of buying regular supplies which their families need for health and comfort. Inevitably there follows an increasing absorption of the national purchasing power by so small a percentage of the population so that it ceases to create a normal demand for enough essentials to meet the real requirements of the country."

"To maintain their gains this minority is developing a nation of criminal warriors and stifling its producers."

We have come to the point today where half what the consumer spends goes to pay not for goods, but for bankers and brokers and advertisers and commercial travelers and salesmen and bookkeepers and lawyers and accountants, to the rearing of banks and chow-chow sky scrapers to the manufacture of cash registers and other devices to make sure that the commercial warrior gets all the booty and to the support of a list of servants and hangers on. What the country needs is to give the great mass of consumers an authority to demand production of the necessities of a comfortable living for all.

"We come today to ask sufficient purchasing power to enable us to call forth such products as are essential to the well being of family life."

LENINE SAYS RETREAT FINISHED

(By The Associated Press)
MOSCOW, March 28.—The Soviet official newspaper Pravda today published additional extracts from Premier Lenine's speech this week before a secret meeting of the All-Russian communist congress.

"Our retreat has finished," the premier was quoted as saying. We can now resume taking little steps in advance."

Alluding to the Genoa conference Premier Lenine declared:

"We have picked up our best diplomats to represent us at Genoa. We are going there not as Communists, but as merchants determined to obtain the best bargains possible. We are going to Genoa with thoroughly practical objects, the enlargement of Russia's commerce and the obtaining of the most favorable conditions for her development."

The results of the diplomatic struggle at Genoa will depend partly upon the skill of our delegates."

"The Soviet Premier was credited with this remark:

"More noise has been made by Genoa than the conference really deserves."

STORMY SCENES MARK PASSAGE OF RESOLUTION

Extend Payment by Austria of $25,000,- 000 for Flour

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 29.—The joint resolution already adopted by the senate authorizing a 25 year year extension for payment by Austria of $25,000,000 for flour purchased thru the United States grain corporation was adopted today by the house.

The vote 142 to 50 was taken after a bitter partisan debate and after the defeat of a motion by a vote of 187 to 115 to send the measure back to the ways and means committee.

Representative Longworth, Republican, Ohio, in presenting the resolution said it released Austrian assets pledged for payment to the United States, it substantially all of the other creditor nations waived similar liens upon Austrian assets. The loan he said, rested upon an entirely different basis from the allied loans and no interest had been paid because Austria lacked income sufficient to meet her own government expenses.

There was applause from both sides of the chamber when Representative Walsh, Republican of Mass., who offered the motion to recommit, declared the time had come when congress ought to pay attention to the needs of its own people instead of trying to aid those who sought a few years ago to overthrow this government.

Many members denounced the resolution and at times the political viewpoint was uppermost.

Representative Garrett, Democratic leader and Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee verged on a clash when the former intimated that Mr. Fordney on one occasion had attacked Woodrow Wilson. Mr. Fordney denied it.

Representative Thomas, Democrat, Kentucky, declared thousands of coal miners were starving and that his relief bill had been ignored. He contended congress ought to help these people ahead of Austrians.

Anti-cigarette week is the next thing on the program. Lucy Page Gaston, who has fought the cigarette decade after decade, is directing this present campaign, and she certainly has an uphill task.

The records of seventy-five years are said to show that each one of the five big coal walkouts that have occurred during that period lasted for at least one month. The chances are that the walkout of 1922 will last longer than the average, for there is enough coal mined to take care of all fuel needs for a longer period.

Election laws have been quite simplified, you know. While keeping this fact in mind, also remember that it is your duty as a good citizen of Jacksonville to cast your ballot in the road district

APPETITE AND AVARICE.

(Chicago Journal of Commerce.)
Tolerance, even sympathy for and encouragement to an extraordinary degree for general violation of one law in this country, has extended into every locality, urban and rural. It has gone to such an extent that the government finds it necessary to establish a special bureau in the Department of Justice, to cope with it. An unprecedented number of people have forgotten or wilfully disregarded the fact that loyalty to law is the first requirement of good citizenship and the very heart of the contract men make with each other in the establishment of a government for the protection and welfare of all. A great number of the offenders are people of whom better things might reasonably be expected—men of affairs who have forgotten that lawlessness in one direction by men whose conduct otherwise is good, breeds lawlessness in all directions.

We have an alliance between Appetite, Avarice and Crime to break down or compel the modification of prohibition laws, not then the legitimate channels of legislation, but by a vast conspiracy to overwhelm the law by universal violation of it. In avarice and determination it rivals the institution of slavery which brought us secession and rebellion sixty years ago. But they were sectional, while the revolt against prohibition has the powerful influence of Appetite, Avarice and Crime behind it in every community, and the reckless lives of a thoughtless and frivolous army of newspaper writers who give daily encouragement of what is in fact a general assault on law.

He became a Freshman in the Jacksonville High school in the fall of 1921, where he was well liked by the class.

During his late illness he bore his suffering with much patience always thoughtful of his mother in her illness at home. His last words being "How are the folks at home?"

Farwell to the home of my childhood

Farwell to the friends of my youth

Farwell to the meadows and wildwood

To all I must say, yes with truth.

Farwell to the seat at the table

Farwell to the sweet songs we sang

Farwell to the chair at the fire-side

To part thus my heart feels a pang.

Farwell to you Father and Mother

Farwell to you brothers, farwell

Farwell to you dear, loving sisters

God bless you, good bye, Fare you well.

OLD MCBRIDE HOUSE IS NOW BEING WRECKED

The old residence property at the southeast corner of Hardin and East College avenues is being razed. The residence is owned by W. E. Boston, having been purchased by him a number of years ago from Mrs. Carolyn Layman. The structure was near the century mark in age and had gotten into such condition that wrecking it was about the only course in order to make the valuable site available for another building. The house was for a great many years the home of the McBride family and for a time the title was in John McBride and his sister, Mrs. Layman.

HEAVY TRUCK MAKES SPLENDID RECORD

The first truck to reach Jacksonville from Springfield since Saturday arrived Wednesday afternoon at 1:40 o'clock following a strenuous battle with the worst roads this part of the country has experienced in many years. The truck, a Stewart, weighing 3,100 pounds, manufactured by the Stewart Motor Co., was intended for exhibition at the Auto Show by Oran H. Cook, local distributor. A start was made from Springfield with the truck Monday morning by W. E. Jenkins, state manager of the Stewart company and Joe Walters, of Springfield, in charge, but the rains and road conditions caused them to decide to postpone the trip. As conditions grew worse instead of better Mr. Jenkins decided Wednesday to make the drive and accordingly left Springfield at 10:30 a. m., reaching the Auto Inn in this city at 1:40 p. m., a remarkable performance. At times the truck plowed thru mud and water well over the wheel hubs and several times stalled completely, but was able to back and hit the bad spots at full speed thereby pulling thru. Aside from being thoroughly mud bespattered the truck showed no ill effects from the journey.

The truck is on display today in Mr. Cook's booth at the auto show.

Jake Schaeffer Holds Title By Beating Hoppe

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 29.—Playing a steady game Jake Schaeffer tonight retained his world's 18.2 ballkline billiard championship defeating Willie Hoppe by narrow margin of 32 points. He ended the third and final block of play with 1500 points to the former champion's 1468.

Hoppe won tonight's block 516 to 500, but Schaeffer's 48 point lead gained in the first two blocks proved too much for even the man whose brilliant play during his 16 years as champion made him the world's popular player.

Tonight despite his rather erratic work under the terrific strain there were few who would dispute Schaeffer's claim to supremacy. Hoppe expressed the general sentiment when he said:

"I have no excuse. There are none better than 'Young Jake.' On the stage the champion was surrounded by friends but thru the crowd a slim bobbed hair girl pushed her way and throwing her arms around the young victor said: 'I knew it Jake, Oh, I knew it.'"

It was Mrs. Jake Schaeffer. Within a month Schaeffer will defend his title against Welker Cochran "boy wonder."

The victory over Hoppe was unusually gratifying to "Young Jake" for when he won the title from Willie, last fall in the tournament here there were many who thought his victories might have been flukes. Furthermore, some 15 years ago, Hoppe defeated the late "Old Jake" Schaeffer, the present champion's father, and it has always been the younger's ambition to prove his superiority over Hoppe.

Tonight's play was ragged at times while occasionally it reached unusual brilliancy. With the exception of a 167 run by Schaeffer in the second frame tonight both players were nervous and off stroke at the start. Hoppe settled down first and by steady play took the lead for first time tonight only to lose it again a moment later when Schaeffer recovered his championship form and ran 213.

In the last inning Hoppe seemed sure of running out when just as he was getting into good form some one in the audience agitated over the challenger's deliberateness shouted "go ahead and shoot."

Hoppe made the shot but missed on the next and Schaeffer ran the ten he needed for victory. Hoppe insisted that he had not been affected by the shout.

"The miss was just a break of the game," he said.

The final night's play drew another capacity house and for the first time there was a noticeable number of women present. In the boxes there were many women in evening dress. There were more than 2,000 persons.

Schaeffer—1166.

Hoppe—961.

Hoppe left the balls scattered and Schaeffer could make only two missing a 2-cushion attempt.

Hoppe scored on a round the table shot and then drew a line up which he missed. The two object balls were on one side of the table and the cue ball directly across.

Starting his fourth inning of tonight, Schaeffer made five almost impossible masses and drives before he was in good position. He ran 22 and then missed on an easy draw.

Hoppe played with the utmost care. He had no difficulty in his first 20 points. The 25th brought a line up but he made it by bank.

A masse got him out of another lineup for his 28th point of the run. The challenger nursed 19 more scores and made the 58th on a masse which brought a minute's ovation. The next was an easy carom but he blew it badly.

Starting his fifth frame, Schaeffer shot too hard and soon had the balls scattered that he was forced into three cushion work. The ivories then began to lineup and it was only by brilliant shooting that he scored his first 12 points. An intentional kiss follow made the 15th and a drive finally brought the balls into fair position.

Both Players nervous

Both players seemed extremely nervous at this stage. Schaeffer repeatedly shooting too hard. He missed an easy shot after running 20.

Schaeffer's miss came when he hit too thick in a cut shot with the first object ball on the rail, resulting in a kiss.

Hoppe started with a setup but scored his 20th of his fifth inning on a kiss. After making 30 he had the balls in position for nursing and began clicking off points rapidly, reaching 50 before he was forced to drive.

The balls then became scattered and Hoppe took some desperate chances before reaching 69, when he missed a 2-cushion corner shot.

Schaeffer made three and missed miserably on a one cushion shot but Hoppe also missed on the same kind of layout. Both men were showing the effect of last night's tight match and were badly off stroke.

Starting his seventh inning, Schaeffer discarded precaution and made some great shots but seemed to lack control, frequently getting the balls in a lineup.

Schaeffer's beautiful shot making carried him to 28 but he failed to drive the balls out of bank and it was Hoppe's shot with the score 1,241 to 1,069 against him.

Hoppe had no trouble in the 7th inning until his 28th point when a cushion shot with the first object ball driven brought all three ivories into a corner when he quickly added 25 more. He reached 60 with a splendid bank to the side rail and apparently had missed at 71 but just grazed the ball. An intentional kiss follow gave Hoppe his 73rd and he repeated the shot for the 76th, being lined up each time.

Hoppe was giving a great exhibition of shot making at this stage of the block but missed after scoring 83.

Schaeffer found the balls scattered and could make only four.

in the hall when Schaeffer started shooting.

Both players drew tremendous ovations when they stepped onto the stage. Schaeffer's first shot was a continuation of the 17th inning of total play and was the resumption of the unfinished run of 58 with which he won last night's block.

He started with the balls well together and held an advantage of 1,000 of 932 at the start.

Schaeffer found no trouble in his first ten points tonight but had to play a cushion bank for his eleventh and a difficult semi-follow for his 20th billiard. He nursed the balls thru the 35th point and a nice draw on the next play got him out of a dangerous spot. A clever draw with the first object ball driven around the table back into perfect position gave him his half century point.

He was lined up on the 55th but made the shot only to find another lineup which he also negotiated by clever work. The balls became scattered and he missed a 2-cushion drive after scoring 59 tonight which with last night's 58, made it 117 for the inning.

Hoppe in his first turn tonight scored six on open play and then missed a shot in which the balls were almost lined.

Starts with Four Cushion Shot

Schaeffer started his next effort with a four cushion shot and then got the ivories together with a 2-rail drive. Schaeffer kept the balls together but they repeatedly lined up in this run until his 15th point in this run that he got them to the end rail. The next 30 points came thru expert nursing with only one masse needed.

He was frozen to the white on his first point, and scattered the balls in recovering. A nice round the table drive brought them back in the corner for another hit of nursing which carried the champion to the 100 mark.

Schaeffer's control became better and as he passed the century score he was grouping the balls in six inch areas at the end of each stroke. After making 107 he had the balls in perfect position but a six inch draw was one thousandth of an inch short and Hoppe was left a set up, but he missed after making three. The score then stood.

Schaeffer found the balls scattered and could make only four.

Hoppe got one and missed out on the next.

Lake Three Cushion Game

The game was more of a three cushion affair at this point than a ballkline contest.

Hoppe got the balls together again in his inning. Hoppe seemed to recover his stroke and was playing beautiful position soon reached 50. With the exception of Schaeffer's second inning it was the first time tonight either man had looked better than a good amateur.

An easy nurse shot gave Hoppe his 72 point and brought him to a tie with Schaeffer 1245 each.

Hoppe was frozen to the white on his 105th point and had to scatter the balls in scoring. A long two cushion shot made it 110 but he missed a three cushion natural after scoring 111.

Schaeffer missed a three cushion attempt and Hoppe also missed a long drive. The score then stood: Hoppe 1284; Schaeffer 1245.

Schaeffer missed again on a difficult round the table shot and Hoppe began scoring with a four cushion billiard. Hoppe ran 44 easily, giving him a lead of 1328 to 1245, and then missed a bank to 1245, and then missed a bank to 1245.

After scoring 15 in his 14th inning of tonight's block Schaeffer drew another lineup which caused trouble, but a series of clever follows brought the balls together at the other end of the table and he easily reached 30 when the balls were again lined but he scored with a short bank. He nursed them to 50.

Schaeffer tied Hoppe at 1328 each reaching his 33rd point of the run thru clever draw and masse shots and then took the lead again.

The balls lined up on the 100 point but Schaeffer scored with a nice masse repeating the shot for the 110th nursing thruout 10 more without changing his place at the table.

Another line up on the 125th was made with a masse which brought applause.

Schaeffer now shooting in championship form reached 160 without faulting.

At 174 the balls scattered but a drive again gathered them and at 185 the champion began a series of nurse shots which carried him to 200 with his stroke still steady.

A beautiful two cushion bank made it 205, with 50 to go.

Runs 213 in 12 Innings

A three cushion intentional kiss shot which started with three balls lined together on the end rail made the 212 but he missed a cross table draw after making 213. The score then stood:

Schaeffer 1458

Hoppe 1328

Hoppe missed a bank and nurse shots or his first 35 points in the 12th inning and twice made short follow with intentional kisses. He had not scattered the balls even once when he reached 50.

The 64th and 65th points were bank shots with the balls in a line. The 69th was another line up with Hoppe's cue ball in the corner and the two object balls stretched across the end rail. A masse scored it. Hoppe frequently was taking as long as a minute to aim on shots at this point. He drew another lineup for the 83rd but made an intentional kiss follow. The run ended with 84 when a cross table drive failed. The score then was:

Schaeffer 1458

Hoppe 1412

The balls lined up on Schaeffer four times in his first six shots but he banked successfully and soon had 25. He missed after scoring 29.

Schaeffer's miss was on a one cushion shot. At the time he needed only 13 to win.

With 88 needed Hoppe found the balls in good condition.

Hoppe reached 25 with only one difficult shot, a masse-draw along the end rail.

He scattered the balls after scoring 43 but scored with a two cushion point and then missed the 44.

Schaeffer began with a kiss played purposely but the balls were scattered and he missed after making three.

Needing 45 to win, Hoppe soon grouped the balls for nurse shots, he reached 13 and missed, missing.

Some one in the audience yelled just before the shot and it disconcerted Hoppe.

Schaeffer then ran ten for a 1500 to 1468 victory.

Tonight's score by innings:

Schaeffer:—59, 107, 2, 22, 20, 3, 28, 4, 0, 0, 0, 213, 29, 3, 10—500-500-500—1500.

A LITTLE PRICE FACT

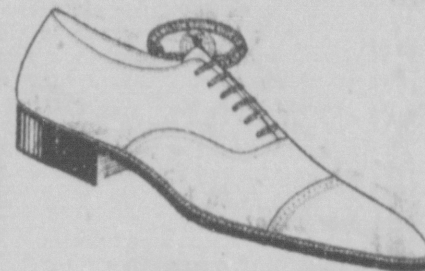

I hear men say, now and then: "Oh, Wehl is too high for me!" These men do not stop to think they can get as good, or better suit from me at $50 than they can get elsewhere. An $85 Wehl suit is worth $85. You cannot get the quality elsewhere. The goods are not carried. I can prove it to you. If you will use your own judgment, instead of taking snap judgment of perhaps an inexperienced and eager salesman, you can demonstrate this truth to yourself. The domestic and imported Spring fabrics I am now showing are a good illustration of this. I can make you a splendid suit from one of them for just what it is worth and it will outlast anything at the same price or less bought without consideration of the material or workmanship. It is true economy to buy standard clothes from a regular merchant tailor.

The $19.90 price is our trade-in price for a 6-volt battery for popular makes of light cars. We have correspondingly low prices for Prest-O-Lite Batteries for other types of cars.

Prest-O-Lite Batteries are specified as original equipment by 87 leading manufacturers, and backed by the regular Prest-O-Lite guaranty, a generous, definite obligation, plus a

PRISONER CALLS WITNESS LIAR

TAYLORVILLE, Ill., March 29.—"Stuttering Jimmie" Lotsey, on trial here with Jerome and Jesse Lockhard as members of the gang which held up the $95,000 payroll of the Peabody Mines at Kincaid last August created a sensation in court today when he jumped to his feet and called a witness a liar. He did not stutter in pronouncing adjectives which preceded the word "liar."
The witness was Elwood Long, negro porter on a Wabash train who identified Lotsey as one of the passengers who boarded the train at Radford on the night of the holdup and lavishly bestowed tips upon the negro for small services.
Lotsey's epithet drew a severe rebuke from Judge Jett.
Jerome Lockhard is the deputy assigned to guard the payroll and according to the prosecution helped frame the robbery.

FAIR COMMITTEE MEETING WITH SUCCESS
The committee in charge of the campaign to raise money for the enlarging of the County Fair and the reestablishing of horse racing in the county met with splendid success yesterday when the members started out to get subscriptions for the project. Some of the committees got an early start and the work in their wards is almost completed. One committee reported $280 subscribed. Other committees were later in starting but do not contemplate any difficulty in raising the rest of the quota which is $375 in each ward. This amount is to be raised by Saturday night of this week.

COMMISSION IS READY FOR WORK

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 29.—The special commission appointed by Governor Small to investigate an alleged traffic in physicians' and pharmacists' licenses and other state permits after organizing in Chicago today notified the governor tonight that they were ready to begin the inquiry and asked for credentials to probe all necessary department records.

The commission organized with Dr. William L. Noble, one of the trustees of the University of Illinois, as chairman, and Dr. E. P. Sloan of Bloomington as secretary. Dr. Sloan, president-elect of the Illinois Medical Society, was named following the declaration of Dr. Charles Humison, retiring president of the society. The third member is Dr. W. A. Evans, former health commissioner of Chicago.

Alleged "leaks" thru which applicants for state licenses are said to have obtained copies of examinations in advance, form the center of the controversy which is expected to extend into the affairs of the department of registration and education of which William Henry Harrison Miller of Champaign is director.

Searcy Replies to Scott McBride

A Statement as to His Position.

(Political Advertisement.)

Incented at what he termed a cruel and absolutely unwarranted attack on his personal integrity, Representative Earl B. Searcy, Republican candidate for the state senate, who is spending much of his campaign time from now on in various parts of the west half of the forty-fifth senatorial district gave utterance yesterday to a plain-spoken statement, dedicated chiefly to F. Scott McBride, of Chicago.

Mr. Searcy prefaced his statement with some pointed remarks about the Sangamon county "Dick Sullivan" organization. He said: "This 'Dick Sullivan' talk is getting on voters' nerves. It seems to be all some politicians such as Dick Dye, who seems to be managing Senator Wheeler's campaign, and others can talk about.

"Richard M. Sullivan is a friend of mine. He with former United States Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman, a close personal and legal friend of Hon. Andrew Russell, former Secretary of State C. J. Doyle, Edwin F. Irwin, and a score of other leading citizens of Sangamon county, are advisors of the regularly constituted and elected Sangamon county Republican central committee. So far as I ever heard or knew, Mr. Sullivan, from his personal habits, is dry. He married into a Jacksonville family of high standing, and he has relatives in this city at the present time.

"I have the endorsement of this regular organization. Neither Mr. Sullivan, nor Senator Sherman, nor Mr. Doyle nor anyone else ever tried, through persuasion or any other means, to dictate to me, or even suggest my policy on moral questions, either before I was elected to the legislature, or after I got in. They are not doing it now. My convictions on such matters were formed years ago, long before I ever dreamed that I would be interested in politics.

"Those convictions were reflected in the last session of the legislature. The fact that I have elected to act with a little independence and personal thinking instead of as a rubber stamp, however, appears to have brought the ill favor of certain individuals who are going about with falsehoods on their lips and with un-Christian conspiracies in their brains.

McBride's Attack Answered. Mr. Searcy, while here, issued the following reply to the attack made upon him by F. Scott McBride, as published in Tuesday's Journal: "Apparently, F. Scott McBride of Chicago, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of Illinois, has joined forces with the Lundin-Thompson machine in the plan to 'pack' the next state senate for Governor Len Small's personal use.

"In making this statement, I am speaking of McBride, personally. Never have I uttered one word in criticism of the league he is paid to represent. I want that clearly understood at the outset. McBride knows it is true.

"Last week, when my copy of the American Issue came to my home, I was surprised and amazed at a lengthy statement, in which he took occasion to attack me personally and officially for things he says I did and did not do. I read it carefully, noted the falsehoods it contained, but was inclined to hesitate about rushing into print in connection with it, until today, when I note that local newspapers printed the statement, at the request, I would judge, of local paid adherents of the Lundin-Thompson organization. The statement is designed to reflect upon my character, and in view of that fact I am going to tell some things I know about this man McBride.

"Let me make it perfectly clear again that what I have to say is concerning McBride personally. As for the organization he represents, or is supposed to represent, that is quite another matter. The aims and purposes of the Civic league here in this county I heartily endorse. I want my friends to know this even though most of them know it already. McBride's personal conduct, however, is so full of bigotry, arrogance, malice and tyranny that we may as well know now some of the things he has done as later.

Says League Offered Aid. "Three weeks ago last Friday, in his room at the Leland hotel, F. Scott McBride asked me to change my mind about the senatorial race and continue in the house. He said, if I could see my way clear to do that, the Anti-Saloon league would gladly give me its endorsement and aid.

"I want to be perfectly honest in this statement. McBride did not send for me in order to make this statement to me. I happened to meet him and he seemed to have invited me to his room to talk the whole situation over. I went. Our conversation was friendly, though frank, and I explained that my only interest in the contest was to help check the Lundin-Thompson raid upon the Republican party in Illinois. It was then that he indicated that he would like to have the field cleared up for Senator Wheeler, topping off with the statement that the league would stand by me if I would run again for the house. He made that statement to me on the strength of my house record last year.

"Now comes McBride with a statement in which he attempts to repudiate all that he himself says I ever said or did. He seems to have cleared through because I dared to try to go from the house to the senate, and in registering his disgust, he stoops to an effort to assassinate character. It is an attitude which is thoroughly un-American, and the voters in this senatorial district will resent it.

McBride says that the letter of appreciation for the one hundred per cent record in the house last session, which I received, was not deserved. Why did he send it? I'll tell you why he sent it. He could not transmit any other kind, in the face of my record. He intimates that my receipt of that letter, dated June 27, 1921, was because of carelessness in his office in Chicago. I have heard shabby excuses, but none, I think, that ever was quite as thin as that.

"McBride says that in 1920 I disclaimed support by the regular Republican organization of Sangamon county, but that I acknowledge it now. That is a deliberate falsehood. McBride knew then, as he knows now, that I had the organized backing of 10 Republican members of my home county. I didn't ask anyone within that organization to shape my policy on moral questions. They were already shaped. Nor did anyone within that organization try to change them. No one is trying now to shape or change them.

"McBride says further that even if I had deserved the letter of endorsement on June 27 of last year I forfeited such claim last July when I stated publicly that I felt there was something wrong with McBride when he refused— and has since refused—to object to Governor Small's veto last year of the only law enforcement appropriation the legislature passed. Never has McBride uttered one word of protest. After endorsing Small as a dry McBride let him calmly strike out the only enforcement appropriation the general assembly would stand for. The only basic question I raised when I saw how things were going was whether Governor Small, endorsed by F. Scott McBride, was a wet or a dry, and from his official record I don't know yet what he is.

Did Not Attack League.

"That was my criticism. I never attacked the Anti-Saloon league and McBride knows it. I did criticize McBride personally. He was entitled to that criticism for there were some twenty of us drys in the house who wondered at the high-minded procedure and at McBride's apparent approval of it.

"Suppose I had forfeited the support last July which this man McBride says I have. Then, I ask, why did F. Scott McBride tell me that in a month ago that he would like a man who can so distort his statements, written and verbal, is not a fit man to be trusted by an organization which pays him a good salary to represent it. McBride says I am now opposed to part of the Anti-Saloon league program for 1923. He is right; I am. But why, in the name of fair play and square honesty, didn't he tell what part of the 1923 program I am opposed to and why I am opposed to it? Since he did not, I will.

"In the first place, I was not privileged to see an outline of the 1923 Anti-Saloon league program until four days after McBride had persuaded his headquarters committee to give John A. Wheeler its exclusive endorsement. That fact, in itself, furnishes proof of the strong-arm tactics which McBride has lent his endorsement to. "Now I will tell you what part of McBride's scheme I am opposed to, and why. I am opposed to the prohibition commissioner bill under the present regime. McBride wants that bill passed and Wheeler is pledged to its support. It will entail an appropriation of between $200,000 and $200,000 and the taxpayers will pay the bill. Lundin-Thompson-Small want the bill, for it will supply several scores of jobs which can, and will, be used for political purposes only.

Raps Small's Veto. "When Small passed the word that Brundage must be cut off from all law enforcement appropriations, regardless of legal obligations on the attorney general to enforce the law, up jumped this commissioner bill as the solution. Wheeler was selected to introduce it. The understanding was that either Wheeler or McBride, or both, would be appointed to responsible state jobs under its provisions. There must have been something to it from Wheeler's standpoint, for since then he tried to get the federal appointment of prohibition commissioner of Illinois. So far as I know Wheeler would have been a good man for the place, but I didn't like the looks of things when I saw McBride calmly permitting Small, whom he had endorsed, cripple a state official whose work McBride personally told me had been satisfactory.

"Now that is chiefly why Mr. McBride is angry at me. I helped get the Illinois prohibition act on the statute books, and it is full of teeth. When McBride asked us to pass a bill which would have served his personal purposes first and Lundin-Thompson-Small political purposes secondly, I, with twenty other friends of the cause in the house, rebelled. "Another thing. When the controversy arose over the Anti-Saloon league course, in view of the governor's determination not to carry out the Anti-Saloon leagues program, I asked McBride to call a general conference of drys, in the general assembly for the purpose of going into the matter and deciding on some concerted course. McBride promised that conference, but he never called it. Instead, he and his lawyer brought down the commissioner bill and Wheeler, in the senate, was asked to introduce it, which he did.

"The prohibition commissioner bill was defeated in the senate by dry forces who were genuinely dry, because they recognized the selfish and unwholy motives back of the measure. It would have been killed in the house, for more than a score of drys were unfavorable towards it. Yet, some of these very enemies of the commissioner bill, who voted all along with the Thompson-Lundin program McBride is endorsing now for re-election.

"It seems to be McBride's understanding that what he says must go, regardless of its merits. Opposition to the commissioner bill was so strong, however, that McBride himself, when he saw how we felt, told the dry members to vote as they pleased on it. Now, however he charges me with great responsibility in the matter. The man crosses himself so often it is impossible to keep up with him.

"And unless a man obeys McBride in the legislature, he is a 'wet', according to McBride. That sort of infamy, falsehood and arrogance is near an end.

"McBride's statement that Wheeler was a dry leader was true. Also I believe Senator Wheeler is deserving of some special consideration in deference to his position. But I resent the attempt on the part of McBride to throw aside any other candidate by means of attempted character assassination. Just because he dares to try to take Mr. Wheeler's place. The last thing in the world this man McBride is interested in is the cost to taxpayers of the state, or institutions he thinks ought to be established.

McBride Joins Thompson, Charge. "Now I have stated that McBride apparently is in with the Lundin-Thompson plan to 'pack' the next state legislature for Governor Small's personal purposes. One thing that inclines me to that belief is the fact that of McBride's endorsements to the senate, to date, approximately two-thirds of the men have pro-Thompson records.

"Another fact is McBride's conspicuous behavior relative to the third senatorial district in Chicago. That is the district from which comes Senator Samuel A. Eitelson, the Lundin-Thompson field man, who this year is a candidate for re-nomination. Eitelson has three opponents for the Republican nomination. Eitelson's record is not a dry one. He voted against the Illinois prohibition act, but he voted for the commissioner act—which Lundin and Thompson wanted passed. And yet, McBride has endorsed no one in that district against Eitelson.

"It is F. Scott McBride's privilege, of course, to endorse whom he pleases. All I ask is that he tell the truth in so doing. So far as this senatorial district, Eitelson has joined hands with Lundin-Thompson and Small in their effort to send back to the senate a man who wants to abolish civil service and return to the spoils system. He has linked himself with a crowd that has dragged the state institutions of this district back into politics, after an historic effort dating back several years to keep their administration independent of politics. McBride is tied up, here, with the Chicago crowd that wants the next legislature to create enough jobs of all kinds to make possible the political control of Illinois. I maintain that somewhere along the line the interests of those of us who pay the tax bill ought to be thought of.

"It is true, during the last session, that I was a bit independent. I sought often the advice of responsible business men and agricultural men of this district. I'll do so again if I get to the senate. When a demagogue like McBride, however, after failing in an effort to try to keep me in the lower house, tries tries to question my moral standing as a candidate for the senate, I deem it time to speak up. His inducement wasn't the only one I had offered me if I would remain out of the race against Wheeler, either.

"If the voters of this district prefer Wheeler to me, then I am satisfied, for I believe in majority rule. But in making their decision I certainly feel they are entitled to know of some of the operations that the other side in this contest is resorting to. There is nothing so distasteful to me as a campaign full of unpleasantness. I had hoped the contest would be clean. With desperate and united forces, such as they are, against me, however, I suppose one cannot expect much else. The best index as to the kind of methods the Lundin-Thompson-Small crowd employ is the character of fight they are now waging in this senatorial district."

SALVATION ARMY DONATES TO PUBLIC LIBRARY
Carpenter, Minnie L.—The Angel Adjutant. This is the life sketch of Staff Captain Kate Lee and has an introduction by General Bramwell Booth. He says, "There is surely little need for me to commend this so intimate and living picture of Staff Captain Kate Lee. It speaks for itself in speaking of one whose line of regular class and labor were of great spiritual strength and had a great love for humanity. The a frail woman, she accomplished wonders. The book is written in an interesting and charming manner. Those who read it will enjoy the many happy incidents of her life.

Year Book. Salvation Army, 1922. This little book tells the principal events of 1921, gives the location of the different divisions in both England and America, and the other European countries. There is a Who's Who in the Salvation Army, Salvation Army periodicals, and Chronological table of important events.

Both of the above books were donated to the Public Library by the local Salvation Army, and make a very generous gift on their part. They are well worth the time one spends reading them and will give you many new and interesting side lights on the great spirit of the Salvation Army.

The selection which Mr. Beach sang was "The Plains of Peare," music by D'Auvergne Bernard with words by Clifford Bingham. Mr. Beach is a singer of rare ability. The enthusiastic and long continued applause of the student body was evidence of the appreciation of the students.

Editor Journal:—I read in Sunday morning's edition a sketch about Woodson and Murrayville citizens working jointly to have the present route of the State Bond issue hard road changed so as to go through Woodson and thence along the C. & A. tracks to Murrayville. It was stated that the present route would take the road through the territory that is hilly and winding.

If there are any worse corners on this road than there are at Maple Grove school house I've failed to see them; corners where the lives of tourists are in danger and where there are school children coming and going seven or eight months of the year. As to the hills they could be graded down and put into good shape for about one tenth (1-10) of what it would cost to build the extra mile of hard road that would be necessary if the route is changed.

Think of the gasoline, oil and tire mileage that would be wasted every year by tourists on that trail by having to go that extra mile. If Woodson wants to be connected with the proposed route why not run a spur of hard road by Jerome Culp's farm which would be about a half mile long and could be done with less than half the expense that would be necessary if the proposed route is changed. Think of the expense it would be to fill in with dirt along the railroad at the Henry Curve before it would be in condition to run a hard road along. As far as more people being benefited by having the route changed, there is a petition on file in the office of the highway commissioner at Springfield signed by most of the farmers west of Woodson and by many of the Murrayville citizens who promised to donate enough work to grade down those hills and put them in good condition and who wants the route left unchanged and have it to run where it ought to run as was laid out by the State Highway Commission. Those signers also believe that more people will be benefitted and less accidents occur by the route being left unchanged than otherwise.

I am (a reader of the Journal who is interested in having the route left unchanged.)

The time for talking better roads is past, now is the time to act. Go to the polls and elect a road commission who will maintain the roads in the best possible condition and do it economically. It can be done and the burden of taxation reduced at the same time.

FOOD LESSON No. 17

GOOD LUCK—A Milk Product

Our very lives depend on milk. We thrive upon it from infancy. It promotes our growth and, when growth is fully attained, preserves our health.

Thousands of gallons of pure, full-cream milk are used daily in the churning of GOOD LUCK—the nourishing spread-for-bread.

It comes to us fresh from the model dairy farms of the Fox River Valley. Thus GOOD LUCK—abounding in healthful butter fats and vitamins—incorporates the best qualities of the richest milk obtainable.

The health-sustaining value of GOOD LUCK is further increased by the addition of meat oils during the process of churning. These oils, extracted from the fats of corn-fed beef cattle, have similar nourishing qualities as the butter fats of milk.

Thus GOOD LUCK is more than a tempting spread-for-bread. It is an unequalled combination of life-giving foods in the most delicious form imaginable.

ROAD DISTRICT SEVEN

POLLING PLACE TOBIN STORE

More than usual interest centers in the election in road district No. 7 which is to take place next Tuesday. There will be but one polling place and that has been fixed at Tobin's store on East Lafayette avenue. This is the polling place generally used in district No. 1.

Under the law there can be but one polling place in the district, and the fact that Jacksonville is within district No. 7 makes no difference as to the number of polling places. Commissioner McDonald has chosen the Tobin store as the place for voting and the arrangements will be such that the vote can be recorded promptly.

The various candidates met recently and agreed to have all names upon one ballot. This will make the election simpler than would have been true had each candidate prepared his own ballot in accordance with the usual custom.

URGED TO SHIP BY REGISTERED MAIL.

Because of numerous messenger and payroll robberies, banks were urged to ship money by registered mail or by express, in a bulletin issued by the Illinois Bankers Association. The bulletin continued that if it is necessary to transport money by messenger "see that he is properly guarded by men equipped with shot guns ready for use."

"With all the numerous messenger and payroll robberies reported it seems strange that bankers will persist in transporting money from place to place without special protection," the bulletin said.

"Such a complete lack of precaution is only a source of temptation, as there is no difficulty on the part of the criminal element to ascertain information, to watch and then prepare plans for the robbery or holdup; furthermore, by this indifference to present conditions, the lives of those carrying the money or securities are constantly in danger of death, as the desperate criminal does not hesitate to shoot to kill when he is after the cash."

PRICE OF WHEAT SHOWS DECREASE

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, March 29.—Predictions of a big yield in Kansas this season had a bearish effect on the wheat market today. Closing prices were unsettled 3 to 12c lower with May $1.31 1/2 to $1.32 and July $1.17 to $1.18.
Corn finished a shade to 1/2c down, oats at a shade decline to advance and provisions varying from unchanged figures to a setback of 20c.
Downturns in the price of wheat came chiefly near the end of the day and after a former president of the Kansas State Board of Agriculture was quoted as saying the Kansas wheat crop was entering the growing season with a prospect of a greater production than at any time in the history of the state.
No more than three per cent of the acreage would be abandoned it was said. Indications of poor demand from millers at St. Louis counted also as a depressing factor and so did word of a railroad embargo against shipments of wheat to Port William and Port Arthur, Ontario.
Although bulls had the advantage during the earliest part of the day it was noticed that reports of high winds, green bug damage and other unfavorable crop conditions in the southwest were an accompanying by orders to purchase. An advance in Liverpool quotations was likewise only a temporary stimulus inasmuch as export bids proved to be for the most part out of line.
Action of the corn market changed to depend mainly on changes in the value of wheat.
Cold wet weather which delayed seedling gave firmness to oats.
Provisions averaged lower with hog values. Packers did considerable selling of lard.

STOCK EXCHANGE PRICES HIGHER

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, March 28.—Price tendencies in the stock market today were unmistakably upward, although profit-taking occurred in the final hour on the gradual rise of call loans from 4 1/2 to 5 per cent.
The advance was attended by a pronounced increase and breadth of operations to which the short interests made voluntary but

RELATIVE DIES

IN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Charles Taylor at 719 Jordan street received word yesterday of the death of her brother Charles L. Unglab at Los Angeles, California. Death came suddenly as no news of his illness had been received. The deceased was a telegraph operator having served as train dispatcher for the past twenty-five years. He was fifty-four years of age and is survived by three children, Earl B. Unglab and Mrs. J. R. Pollock of Nello, Illinois and Carl Unglab of Champaign, Illinois, also the following brothers and sister, John A., of Canyon City, Colorado, Jos. B. of Vicksburg, Mississippi, Mrs. R. M. Forsythe of Oklahoma City, Okla., Frank Unglab and Mrs. Charles Taylor of this city. Funeral services were held yesterday and interment was made at Los Angeles.

INTEREST DOES NOT FLAG IN AUTO SHOW

GREAT CROWDS THROGGED
AUTO INN WEDNESDAY

More Cars Received and Display Spaces Are Full—Entertainment Features Make Enthusiasm—Exhibitors Pleased with Interest Shown.

Judging by all appearances at the Jacksonville Automobile Show and Merchants Exposition the weather is fair and favorable and the roads of Morgan county are in fine condition. In other words, there is so much interest in the show and the attendance is so large that a big success is being scored by the Automotive men's project notwithstanding the weather and road conditions.

Additional cars were received yesterday and the display spaces are crowded. The Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors were in charge of the social festivities of the second floor last night and a record crowd was there, for the dancing and other amusements. There were 1,500 admissions to the second floor and this statement gives a pretty accurate idea of the size of the ground floor throng.

Picnards on a number of cars show that sales have been made, and in the merchants' wares departments so much interest has been shown that the merchants are enthusiastic over the good advertising that has resulted from their displays.

The radiophone of the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co., continues to be one interesting feature of entertainment. While the weather was discouraging and there was lots of lightning in the air, the operator was able to get in touch with Denver and Pittsburgh, in addition to South Carolina station. From the latter station the solo of a talented woman vocalist was heard. It has been found that the noise within the display rooms prevents the satisfactory use of the amplifiers. The use of the radiophone located as it is not satisfactory without a headpiece.

The Ladies of the Christian Church Passavant Hospital Aid society are receiving liberal patronage at their booth, which is near one of the entrances and the indications are that the week will show a goodly sum raised toward the establishment of an isolation hospital.

Advertisements for a number of county candidates were placed in conspicuous positions yesterday. Chairman J. F. Claus of the concessions committee having arranged for this special line of advertising. The expenses for this year's show are very heavy and President Berger and Mr. Claus as concessions chairman are consequently very much pleased that the patronage from space buyers has been so liberal. Additions are constantly being made to the merchants' displays and there is plenty on view to warrant more than one trip of inspection to the Auto Inn.

See Han Jones' Big Song Show at GRAND THEATRE tonight. One show, 8:15.

CHANGE IN FIRM IS ANNOUNCED

Announcement in another column indicates the dissolution of partnership between E. J. Birnbaum and Daniel Moore, proprietors of the Loop cafe, cafeteria and meat market. Mr. Moore is to retire from the firm. It is understood that he will remain for several weeks in Jacksonville and then expects to locate in another city.

Mr. Birnbaum will assume entire charge of the extensive business. Something less than a year and a half ago these two men purchased the Hall cafe and under their efficient management the business was very rapidly developed up to its present large proportions.

Mr. Birnbaum has wide experience in the business and is entirely competent to assume the responsibilities of sole ownership. The relationships between Mr. Birnbaum and Mr. Moore are entirely cordial and the dissolution was merely agreed upon in the course of business.

AT THE AUTO SHOW

The L. F. O'Donnell Motor Co., has a booth in addition to display space at the auto show, Miss Miller, representing the O. D. Stop light, is here giving demonstrations and a stop light was given away last night, the fortunate recipient being Howard Henderson, W. T. Elchenberger of the Toledo-Detroit Co., of Chicago; the fourth of the Lovell Silver Distributing Co., and P. V. Moore of the Hyatt-Torrey Motor Co., and all at the O'Donnell booth for the week.

KIWANIS CLUBS PLAN OBSERVANCE PROGRAMS

Kiwanis International Organization to Join in Observance of "United States and Canadian" Days Week of April 2 to 8.

The Kiwanis International organization is joining with others in an effort to bring about proper observance of "United States" and "Canadian" days, to be held during the week of April 2 to 8. This period has been fixed officially for observance programs by Kiwanis clubs everywhere. The purpose is to foster the present splendid relations between the United States and Canada. It is left to each club to develop its own program, but all will give prominence to the one thought.

This period for the observance was selected because it was in April, 1818, that the negotiations between Great Britain and the United States were finally completed in the Rush-Bagot arrangements, which restricted armaments upon the Great Lakes. The plan really accomplished a practical disarmament, which condition typifies the fine relations between the countries thru the succeeding years.

President F. E. Farrell of the local Kiwanis club will bring the matter to attention and it is expected that Canadian day will be the feature of next Thursday's program.

History shows that the correspondence between the two countries in the early year mentioned breathes the spirit of desire for friendly relationships. It is the purpose of those fostering the present movement to bring to pass even happier relationships between the two countries in the days to come, with the belief that this section will be mutually beneficial.

THE REVIVAL INTEREST
GROWS AT NORTHMINSTER

Following custom, members of Northminster church assembled for 6 o'clock supper Wednesday evening. Reports were made from various church organizations, indicating that satisfactory work is being done. Following the business session all present adjourned to the auditorium to listen to the evangelistic sermon by Dr. Sears.

"Don't Worry" will be the theme of the address tonight. The interest is growing each night, congregations increasing at each service. Everybody is delighted with Dr. Sears' preaching; when you hear him once, you want to hear him again. Dr. Sears took as his subject last night the sayings of Jesus, "First of all we want to notice some of the characteristics of the sayings of Jesus. You cannot read the words of Jesus without being made a better man. Again notice the importance of these sayings. If you would furnish yourself with the very instruction in any laudable undertaking, store your mind with the sayings of Jesus. The riches of Jesus' sayings is not understood as they ought to be. The riches of life that bring the greatest happiness is the riches of the mind and heart.

"Again the sayings of Jesus impart comfort and joy. Where do we go for comfort when sorrow and death enter our homes; not to the writings of the infidels or unbelievers, but to Jesus. One of the reasons why some men don't read the Bible is because it shows them as they really are. You don't read it because it condemns you in the way you are living. Let the light of the sayings of Jesus come and all darkness and doubt will go out. As you grow older the brighter will the future look thru the sayings of Jesus.

"The sayings of Jesus are worthy of the attention of all men. They are the only guide in way of life that will safely guide us safely home. Those words give us a foretaste of what is to come. Study the sayings of Jesus and become like him."

Dr. Sears will give his famous lecture, "Don't Worry," tonight. Everybody cordially invited to hear this lecture.

CARS DAMAGED

IN COLLISION

Two cars were smashed up yesterday about one o'clock at the intersection of West State and Park streets when a car driven by Eddie Harmon collided with one owned by Louis C. Hackman of Sandusky street and driven by his daughter, Miss Zelma Hackman.

The Hackman car, a Buick, was going east on West State street and the other car, a Jeffrey was going west. Harmon turned over in front of the Hackman car to go up Park street and the two cars came together with considerable force. The cars were thrown against the curbing and a telephone pole and the fenders and lights of both machines were smashed. No one was hurt and occupants were able to drive the cars away, after some minor repairs had been made.
